

Reaching a Final Cleanup Decision

Identify potential risk to human health and/or the environment caused by past practices

Investigate to determine nature and extent of contamination

Set cleanup objectives

Develop cleanup alternatives

- Data from past site investigations, studies, etc.
- Data from investigations conducted specifically for this project
- Engineering studies and scientific research to aid in alternative development

Public and Regulatory Acceptance

Repeat for each CERCLA project

Sequence

Begin engineering studies and scientific research